Effective Date: April 26, 2016

RESIDENT SELECTION PLAN-POLICY

Welcome to Pioneer Crossing Mineral Wells Apartments. This apartment community was developed with special financing, which allows the rental rates to be more affordable. It is not connected with the Section 8 program, although applicants with Section 8 vouchers and certificates are welcome to apply.

I. FAIR HOUSING AND EQUAL OPPORTUNITY LAWS

The Development will comply with state and federal fair housing and antidiscrimination laws; including, but not limited to, consideration of reasonable accommodations requested to complete the application process. Chapter 1, Subchapter B of this tile provides more detail about reasonable accommodations. Screening criteria will be applied in a manner consistent with all applicable laws, including the Texas and Federal Fair Housing Acts, the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act, program guidelines, and the Department's rules. Management will not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, age (except in eligibility requirements), handicap, familial status, national origin, and/or applicants covered by the Violence Against Women Reauthorization Act of 2013, in any phase of the occupancy process. The occupancy process includes, but is not necessarily limited to, application processing, leasing, delivery of management and service, access to common facilities, and termination of occupancy.

II. ACCEPTING APPLICATIONS

Management will accept an application for rental from any and all interested persons during normal business hours. All persons desiring to apply for occupancy will be provided the opportunity to submit completed applications. It must be recognized that submission of an application neither guarantees the applicant housing nor obligates the property's agent to provide housing. Admission and move-in is contingent upon verified qualification of the applicant and availability of an appropriate unit.

- A. Written application, on the property's Texas Apartment Association (TAA) form, must be made in order to be considered for residency. Application may be made in person by the applicant(s), by mail, or by on-line service, if available.
 - 1. Proof of identity will be required for all family members (such as driver's license, state identification card, social security numbers for all family members)
 - 2. Should the applicant be personally unable to complete the form, the:
 - a. Applicant must be present to provide the information to the person that is completing the application form, or
 - b. Persons assisting the applicant must sign and date the application, indicate it was completed at the direction of the named applicant, and provide identification to management.

3. The application must be fully completed and signed by the adult member(s). Any information not readily available to the applicant, must be so noted on the application form by the applicant.
- B. In order to process your application, management may need information/documentation to verify the following:
1. Current gross annual income. Income cannot exceed program requirement
 2. Credit and statewide Criminal History Background Check on all family members 18 years and older.
 3. Rental history. It is your responsibility to provide necessary information that allows us to contact your past landlords. If we are unable to verify your previous landlord and/or references, we reserve the right to deny your application.
 4. A person with a disability may request reasonable accommodations during application and while residing at the development by submitting the Special Unit Requirement Questionnaire by email or to the management office. Also you may contact the Management Office at 940-325-1800. Management will submit the request for review, and approval or denial of such request will be given to the applicant within three (3) business days.
- C. The screening criteria will be applied uniformly and in a manner consistent with all applicable laws, including Texas state laws, the Federal Fair Housing Act, the Federal Fair Credit Reporting Act and all Affordable Housing program guidelines. Information will be obtained and considered for all household members who are:
1. 18 years of age or over.
 2. Persons married (regardless of age).
 3. Persons married at one time and presently divorced (regardless of age).
 4. A minor (under 18) who is emancipated from parental control by court order.

III. VIOLENCE AGAINST WOMEN ACT (VAWA) POLICY

Property managers understand that, regardless of whether state or local laws protect victims of domestic violence, people who have been victims of violence have certain rights under federal fair housing laws. The intent of this Policy is to support or assist victims of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking as well as to protect victims and members of their family, from being denied housing as a consequence of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence or stalking.

- A. If any applicant or resident wishes to exercise the protections provided in the VAWA, he/she should contact the owner/agent immediately. The owner/agent is committed to ensuring that the Privacy Act is enforced in this and all other situations.

B. The owner/agent will not assume that any act is a result of abuse covered under the VAWA. In order to receive the protections outlined in the VAWA, the applicant/resident must specify that he/she wishes to exercise these protections.

C. Compliance with Requirements Outlined in the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

1. The VAWA was promoted for a noble cause to make the lives of victims of abuse easier and to prevent homelessness. Some key points provided in the Act include:
 - a. A potential resident who certifies they were the victim of domestic violence would be allowed to be admitted, even with poor credit and/or poor owner/agent evaluations, if they can show the cause of these negative factors were caused by domestic violence. The owner/agent does require certification beyond self-certification of the applicant. This may include verification from police, domestic violence victims' advocates and social service agencies.
 - b. The Act assured that victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, etc. can have access to the criminal justice system without facing eviction.
 - c. Where someone is abusive to other members of the household, only the abuser may be evicted, if the reason for eviction is directly related to such abuse.
 - d. Residents living in assisted housing facing violence can be allowed early lease termination for a matter of safety.

D. Certification and Confidentiality

1. When the owner/agent responds to a claim of protected status under the VAWA the owner/agent will request, in writing if appropriate, that an individual complete, sign, and submit the VAWA certification form within 14 business days of the request. The owner/agent understands that the delivery of the certification form to the resident via mail may place the victim at risk, e.g., the abuser may monitor the mail.

Therefore, in order to mitigate risks, the owner/agent will work with the resident in making acceptable delivery arrangements, such as inviting them into the office to pick up the certification form or making other discreet arrangements. Owner/agent will respond to the request within three (3) business days of receiving completed certification with all required back up documentation.

2. If the resident has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence or stalking from a federal, state, tribal, territorial jurisdiction, local police or court, the resident may submit written proof of this outreach.

E. In addition to submitting VAWA certification, the victim can submit one of the following:

1. A federal, state, tribal, territorial, or local police record or court record, or
2. Documentation signed and attested to by a professional (employee, agent or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, medical personnel, etc.) From whom the victim has sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence or stalking or the effects of the abuse. The signatory attests under penalty of perjury (28 U.S.C. §1746) to his/her belief that the incident in question represents bona fide abuse, and the victim of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking has signed or attested to the documentation.

- F. The owner/agent will carefully evaluate abuse claims as to avoid conducting an eviction based on false or unsubstantiated accusations.
- G. The identity of the victim and all information provided to owner/agent relating to the incident(s) of abuse covered under the VAWA will be retained in confidence. Information will not be entered into any shared database nor provided to a related entity, except to the extent that the disclosure is:
 - 1. Requested or consented to by the victim in writing;
 - 2. Required for use in an eviction proceeding or termination of assistance; or
 - 3. Otherwise required by applicable law.
- H. The VAWA certification provides notice to the resident of the confidentiality of the form and the limits thereof. The owner/agent will retain all documentation relating to an individual's domestic violence, rape, dating violence or stalking in a separate file that is kept in a separate secure location from other resident files.
- I. If the owner/agent determines that physical abuse caused by a resident is clear and present, the law provides owner/agent the authority to bifurcate a lease i.e., remove, evict, terminate housing assistance to that individual, while allowing the victim, who lawfully occupies the home, to maintain tenancy.
- J. Owners/agents must keep in mind that the eviction of or the termination action against the individual must be in accordance with the procedures prescribed by federal, state, and local law. In the event that one household member is removed from the unit because of engaging in acts of domestic violence, dating violence or stalking against another household member, an interim recertification will be processed reflecting the change in household composition.
- K. Lease Addendum
The owner/agent is required to attach the VAWA Lease Addendum, which includes the VAWA provisions, to each existing or new lease.

VI. DENYING APPLICANTS

- A. Applicants will be denied for the following reasons:
 - 1. For not meeting, or exceeding, Affordable Housing Program criteria for the property.
 - 2. For not meeting property screening criteria.
 - a. Screening score of 9 or below.

- b. For not having current verifiable monthly income minimum 2.5 times the resident's portion of the rental rate.
